ALIVE IN THEIR GRAVES.

Two Brothers, Being Fast in a Caved Well, Make Verbal Wills.

Niobrara Pioneer.

Mr. G. Wiard, who has just returned from O'Neill City, informs us that the two Biglow brothers, who resided in town for awhile this Spring before going to their homesteads near Atkinson, Holt county, were buried in a well at that place on the 28th ult. by the caving in of the quicksand through which the well had been sunk, the curbing not being of sufficient strength to resist the pressure. Although one was severely injured by the timbers, he survived until the Saturday morning following, and the other, who was not injured, lived until that evening when their strength was exhausted and death relieved them from their misery. Although twenty-eight feet from the surface of the ground they could make themselves heard, and gave directions regarding the disposal of their property, advising their wives, who are sisters, to go back to their old home in the east, where they would be happier and more comfortable. There were more rescuers than could work at one time, and frequent changes of hands made, but of no avail, the brothers being fully aware that help could not reach them in time. They died calmly and manfully, taking their fate as true men do. They were exhumed on Sunday and buried the same day.

Slaven's Effervescent California Fruit Salt.

Is prepared from sound, ripe fruit, by an experienced analytical chemist, who has spent years in experimenting on its preparation. It is manufactured by a special process known only to the proprietor. This preparation is a safe, simple and effective medicine for regulating the action of the stomach, liver and kidneys. It is most particularly recommended for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Headache, Heartburn, Acidity of the Stomach, Habitual Constipation, Nausea, Sea Sickness, Kidney and Liver Troubles, Over-indulgence either in eating or drinking, etc. As a purifier of the blood in all Scrofulous diseases, it has no equal. It removes all eruptions from the skin, and has a cooling and invigorating effect on the system. The FRUIT SALT is entirely different from any of the effervescent Salts or Sodas preparations in the market, being manufactured from Fruit. For sale by ap28-14 Osburn & Shoemaker.

Platonic Friendship.

Miss Phelps, in her story, "Friends; a Duet," recently published in the Atlantic Monthly, expresses frankly and clearly the opinion that a man and woman with favorable circumstances, cannot perpetrate a rational friendship without contemplating or perpetrating a marriage engagement. She vigorously discourages the Platonic affection theory, and places marriage as a "con summation" confidently to be expected whether it is "devoutly to be wished" or not. Charles Reade more explicitly put forward the same idea years ago.

How to Get Sick.

How to Get Well.

Which is answered in three words—Take Hop Bitters! See another column.

How to Secure Health.

It is strange any one will suffer from derangement brought on by Impure Blood, when "HOPB'S SARSAPARILLA AND STILLINGIA, OR BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP" will secure health to the physical organization. It is a strengthening syrup, pleasant to take, and the BEST BLOOD PURIFIER ever discovered, curing Scrofula, Syphilis, skin diseases, and all diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, Stomach, Skin, etc.

HUB PUNCH

TO TOP OFF A DINNER,

May be Drank Clear, as a Cordial

For a dinner thoroughly appointed, the good old way was to wash down the last triumphs of the feast with copious libations of old Port and Golden Sherry; but

Mix HUB PUNCH with Ice Water, Cold Tea, Lemonade, or Soda. It is unconditionally pronounced unrivalled.

STATE FINANCE.

The Reno Gazette has ideas of its own regarding our State finances, and it is expressing them in vigorous English. The Gazette seems to think that the present administration has well nigh bankrupted the State. The Sentinel cordially concurs in this opinion. The school money and all has been swallowed up.

The above extract is from the Eureka Sentinel, the same paper that published Superintendent Sessions' defense of the present policy, as an original editorial.

Can the State officers not see that they have been led into a trap by ambitious Democrats now in the State Capital, and jealous Republicans who hope to be there?

The above extract goes further than we have ever said or now believe, but in principal it is correct.

Can the State Officers point to a single originator or adviser of the present policy who dares defend it?

Do the State officers not see the handwriting on the wall?

Do they see anything.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The newest maps issued by the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad Company have the line marked out clear to San Francisco. The road comes up the San Joaquin valley strikes the coast at Santa Cruz, and follows the course of the South Pacific Coast road to Oakland. This would seem to be proof positive that the coast route had been definitely abandoned.

S. F. Daily Exchange: The audience which assembled last evening at Barr's Hall are entitled to the credit of being the first body of men to arrive at a correct estimate of what Dennis Kearney's speeches were worth. The rotten eggs flew so fast and so furiously that the Call's mouth-piece was forced to a disgraceful flight from his "rostrum."

The San Francisco Chronicle is very much surprised that the Call has entertained different opinions at different times. Not one man in San Francisco ever expects any change in the Chronicle, for it is a cold-blooded mercenary relic of inquisitorial days all the time.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

NEVADA.

James Camblin, a miner employed at the Foreman shaft, received a scalp wound Friday morning. A falling rock struck him on the head inflicting a painful though not dangerous wound.

The Silver State says: Colonel Hardin yesterday preferred charges of cattle stealing against R. Hein. The defendant was arrested and gave bail in the sum of $500 for his appearance. Hein, who is an old resident of this county, has hitherto borne an unblemished reputation.

Says the Silver State: D. H. Haskell located a place for a town near Safford District, but is not yet satisfied whether it will pay to have the town-site surveyed. He says there is considerable ore in sight, and assays show that an average of the Onondaga ledge yields over $40 per ton.

CALIFORNIA.

Wm. Roscoe was badly hurt by a rolling log at Freshwater, Humboldt county, August 24th.

Willie Canterbury, in the San Geronimo Pass, was last week bitten by a rattlesnake. He has been in a dangerous condition since, but may recover.

John McCabe was run over at the Sacramento depot Thursday by the cars, and had one leg cut off. He cannot live. McCabe has a family in San Francisco.

McDowell's Information.
Special to the Gazette.
SAN FRANCISCO, September 3.
A dispatch from General McDowell's headquarters reads as follows:

A dispatch from General Wilcox, last night, says he has received news by an Indian runner that Carr's command including himself, six other officers and sixty-four enlisted men were killed on August 31st, and that Pedro's men had killed seven or eight men, including the express man between Apache and Thomas.

A second dispatch, received from General Wilcox this morning, says he has received news that only a few survived from Carr's disaster at Cibola Creek, which is forty miles west of Apache. Those who escaped did so by fighting their way towards Fort Apache, but it is doubtful if they get in.

Pedro's band attacked Fort Apache, but the Department Commander thinks he must have been repulsed, and he now holds the canyon through which the road runs from Thomas to the Apache Passes.

(Signed) KELTON, A. A. G.

The Apache Outbreak.

[Special to the Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.
At the down town office of the U. S. Army no information has been received regarding the reported massacre of General Carr and his command. The officers here infer from orders received for the disposition of troops that an outbreak on a serious scale has taken place. The Company of 1st Cavalry stationed at Camp McDermitt and another at Camp Halleck, Nev., and Company of 8th Infantry, Benicia, have been ordered to start at once.

The President's Removal—His Condition Last Night.

WASHINGTON, Sept.

Secretary Hunt, Dr. Bliss, Colonel Rockwell and the President's private secretary went to the navy yard this afternoon to make an examination of the Tallapoosa, with the view of the possible removal of the President from Washington in the near future. No decision in regard to the time or manner of removal has yet been reached, and Bliss made his visit to the navy yard this afternoon simply to see the Tallapoosa, in order that he might discuss intelligently with the other surgeons the question of removal by water. If all goes as well as the patient's present symptoms seem to promise, Boynton thinks his removal can be safely made within a week.

Bliss reports that the President has had, on the whole, a more pleasant day than yesterday. His pulse has been fairly steady at about 100. He has no fever at this hour. Pulse, 100; temperature and respiration normal.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.

Blaine telegraphs to Lowell: The President has had a very satisfactory day, and, in the judgment of his surgeons, all symptoms are favorable tonight. Taking the twenty-four hours through, he has had less fever and better appetite than for many days past.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, Sept. 2.—Midnight.—The President's symptoms are favorable. He is now resting quietly.

Another Massacre by the Apaches.

TUCSON, September 2

The Star has advice from Fort Grant to the following effect: Three couriers have come into Fort Thomas, all bringing the news that General Carr and command were massacred by the White Mountain Indians, thirty-five miles from Camp Apache. One hundred and ten men and seven officers were killed. The officers must be General Carr, Captain Honlig, Lieutenants Carter, Gordon, Stanton, Cruces, and Dr. McCreary. The White Mountain Indian Reservation is located about 160 miles north of Wilcox, near the line of New Mexico. The tribe number about 1,500 in all. They can muster 400 warriors. This is the only tribe of Apaches which have not been whipped into subjection. They were moved in 1876 into San Carlos Reservation, but were recalled and returned to their old hunting grounds, where they have been ever since.

The committee appointed by the Board of Underwriters to investigate the danger of fire from the electric light wires, is convinced that, if the wires are properly insulated, there is less danger from electricity than from leaky gas mains and kerosene.

Exiled Frenchmen.

If there are any Frenchmen in Nevada who were banished from their native land after the coup d'etat of 1851, they may be interested in knowing that a law has been passed by the Assembly in France, granting an indemnity of 6,000,000 francs to the ex-patriated Republicans. The indemnity is not for loss of property, but for banishment or exile, and it is not for the descendants of the dead, but only for those still living. Every one entitled to anything at all is entitled to from 400 to 1,200 francs per year the balance of his life. In order to reap the benefits to which they are entitled the exiles must make application within two months from this time to the Secretary of the Interior of France through their respective Consuls.

Meeting To-Morrow.

The Hebrew Benevolent Association will hold a regular meeting at the usual place at 3 o'clock, P. M., to-morrow. A full attendance is desired.

"BLACK LEG."

The "Gazette's" Warning to Stock Men Calls out a Description of the Disease and Method of Treatment.

After copying the articles which recently appeared under the above head in this paper, the Pacific Rural Press gives the following information. Stock men would do well to preserve it. The Press says:

Last year we had inquiries for the causes and treatment of this disease from our New Mexico readers. As the Nevada herds seem threatened with the malady now, we cannot perhaps do better than reproduce for their information the main points as given us by John Caswell, M. R. C. V. S., from his studies and experience in the subject.

The causes are very difficult to find out; we must look to the feed then to the atmosphere; activity of certain organs may have something to do with it. It seems to be more prevalent in spring and autumn, and is seldom seen in summer or winter. It is not traceable to miasma in spring, but it may be due to it in autumn, but not entirely dependent upon it. It may also be due to inordinate feeding producing plethoria. Young bulls seldom have the disease; they being more active keep their organs in a state of health, thus their comparative inausceptibility.

In this disease the blood ferments and undergoes decomposition, produced by grass, wanting in flesh-making materials, and in the salts necessary to keep the blood in a healthy condition. French veterinarians claim this disease to be due to an infection, to an active agent, which appears to be of cryptogamic (fungoid) nature, acting on the blood in the form of a septic ferment. This agent is a miasma that the animal finds about him; that is to say, an organic substance, a debris of vegetable matter suspended in the air and retained there by watery vapor. Sometimes this miasma is found in the waters, more rarely in the solid bodies, serving as food. The disease may proceed from infected animals; the infecting agent is multiplied then often after the fashion of a virus, and is communicated by fixed and volatile contagion. This disease is now being investigated both by the English and French leading lights of the veterinary profession, and I think, before very long, the pathology of the disease will be better understood.

The symptoms are as follows: It appears suddenly; the animal is dull and has no appetite; difficult respiration; great difficulty in moving; cold body, head poked out; grinding teeth; lameness in one limb (generally hind one.) By manipulation a swelling will be found in the upper part of the limb, but sometimes it appears on the body, over the loins or on the side of the neck. The swelling is irregular in form, and spreads with remarkable rapidity. At first it is very painful, but gradually loses its sensibility and feels like a bladder filled with air. By making incisions, it will be found to contain a black, pulpy, frothy substance. The respiration becomes more painful and hurried. The patient becomes feeble and staggers in his gait. The loss of power continues until the animal falls. The skin gets deathly cold, convulsions set in, and the case ends in death, generally in from twenty-four to forty-eight hours after the first appearance of the symptoms.

Treatment in this disease can only be considered experimental, the disease runs its course so rapidly. If discovered in the first stage of the disease, give sulphate of magnesia, one lb.; nitrate of potassa, two ounces. If the pulse is strong, bleed freely. If the animal lives twenty-four hours, give hypophosphite of soda in two-ounce doses, with vegetable tonics, such as tincture of gentian, ginger, etc., in ounce doses, twice or three times in twenty-four hours, gradually decreasing the dose as the patient improves. Make several incisions in the diseased part and separate the skin from the flesh between the incisions (the incisions should be made around the margin of the swelling). Then rub in a strong solution of nitrate of potassa. Afterwards dress with: Linseed oil, four parts; turpentine, four parts; carbolic acid, one part.

Prevention.—Insert a seton in the dewlap, impregnated with turpentine and croton oil. Bled to the extent of about two quarts. Give to each animal two drams of sulphate of iron, one ounce nitrate of potassa, and one ounce sublimed sulphur once a week. Divide the animals in several lots and change the pasturage to higher ground, if possible.

Twenty Years a Minister.

Rev. C. McKelvey will preach his last sermon in Reno to-morrow. On Monday he will lecture on "Reminiscences and scraps of experience of twenty years in the Methodist Ministry." The subject is interesting, and will be well handled. Miss Quaffie, Mrs. Hanford and a full choir will also furnish some fine music. Mr. McKelvey's friends will no doubt give him a rousing farewell.

New Residence.

G. W. Huffaker has tired of the old Huffaker hotel and will build for himself a stone residence 40 x 48, and two stories in height. Huff & But-nop will do the work and the building will cost about $8,000.

THE SIERRAVILLE FIRE.

Further Particulars. The Loss Estimated at $75,000. The Town Rebuilding.

LOYALTON, CAL., Sept. 1st, 1881.
Editor Gazette.—Dear Sir: Sierraville was entirely burned yesterday. The fire originated in the rear of Mr. Olson's store, about 4:30 P. M. and spread over the entire village. The following are the losers, viz.: Miss I. Olson, a store; house and goods insured. M. Dean, owner and proprietor of Globe hotel, insured $3,700. A. Atwood two buildings and shoe store. Andy Johnson, saloon in Mr. Atwoods building. Dave Stewart, large saloon and billiard table and a large dance and public hall over the saloon. George Wood, drug store and harness shop, insured. George Fagg, two or three buildings. S. F. Burton, drygoods and grocery store. Charles Chapman, owner and proprietor of Sierraville hotel. I. Pitman, butcher shop. A. S. Nichols & Co., fine brick store, with Masonic Hall over store. This building blew up from a large quantity of powder in the cellar, before the fire broke out, it having on an iron roof, and only for the large porch around the building taking fire it would not have burned. C. C. Darlings blacksmith shop. Not a single business house is left in the town, excepting the livery and feed stable. The losses, or the amounts of insurance, cannot be learned with accuracy at present. Total loss between $60,000 and $75,000. The town will be built, and temporary buildings are going up already and some were ready for use 24 hours after the fire.

The losses are not as heavy as at first reported. They are, so far as ascertained, as follows: S. T. Burton, store, $6,000; M. Dean, hotel, $10,000; J. Olsen, store, $7,000; D. P. Stewart, saloon and hall, $8,000; C. W. Chapman, hotel, $10,000; George Wood, drug store, $5,000; C. C. Darling, livery stable and blacksmith shop, $2,000. The total loss will exceed $70,000. The report that a two-year-old child of S. T. Burton was burned to death proved to be untrue, as the little one was found safe and sound after the first excitement had ceased.

Business Boys.

This is the clever way in which the Virginia Chronicle takes off the Enterprise head-line of yesterday:

The boys who sell the papers on the streets, when not engaged in puffing out their intellectual force through the insidious cigarette or cigar stump, are keen and bright, as their business communications show:

"Wot yer goin' to heller to-day, Jamsey?" said one of the leaders of the squad to his partner this afternoon. "I'm goin' ter sign out: 'Ere's your Central Persifk train robbers. They make a fyasco and skip."

"Wot's a fyasco, Jimmy?" "I dunno, adzactly, Patsy, but it's a heap of money; you can betcher life on that."

"Well," said Patsy, "I'm goin' to heller: 'Desprit fight on D street. Crosby's gallant defense.'"

"Wot's a gallant defense?" "Hittin' a woman wid a club."

This took Jimmy back a little, but he soon recovered from the temporary shock and said:

"If I don't hit 'em hard wid de fyasco, I'll heller: 'Latest bullytine from Washington—condim' of Doctor Bliss'—that'll knock 'em sure.'"

Those who buy papers of the boys have fair warning.

HISTORICAL HIGHWAYMEN.

How the Famous Raiders of 1870 Were Handled by the Law, and Where They Are.

The recent attempt to rob the Atlantic Express calls to mind the fact that on the morning of the 5th of November, 1870, the east-bound passenger train was robbed of $41,800 a few miles west of Reno. The money was being sent from San Francisco to Virginia City. The plan of operations was as follows: At Verdi five men got aboard the train, and, against orders, occupied the platform of the front car. The brakeman requested them to go inside, but they refused and practically became masters of the train. The engineer was compelled to run on to the stone quarry, about six miles west of Reno, where the sixth man was stationed with guns, money sacks, etc. The express boxes were broken open and the coin transferred to purses made of old boot legs expressly for the occasion, with which the robbers took to the hills. Detectives and officers were on the alert, and the result was that the whole six robbers were arrested and $39,000 of the money recovered.

At the trial conviction was secured in each case, and the sentences ran from five to twenty-three and one half years in each case. One who was in for five years served his term out. The one sent for ten years was pardoned out in order to become a witness in a very important mining suit, and he afterwards participated in a stage robbery in the eastern part of the State and was killed. The one sent for eighteen years was finally pardoned out. Three still remain tailors for the State. The same train was robbed the next night. The three robbers, Taylor, Morton and Barnes, were sentenced to thirty years each in the Nevada State Prison. Most of the above named train robbers participated in the big prison break in October, 1871. Taylor was wounded; Morton was hung in Mono county; Barner escaped, went to Oregon, married and settled down, but was captured and returned to his post of duty in the Nevada State Prison. This is published for the encouragement of young men who think of the road as a steady business.

Wrinkled Faces.

It is a painful sight to see young ladies in their teens with wrinkled and prematurely old faces; nevertheless it is quite common, and to any one who observes the tendency of the times the reason is very apparent. Owing to flaming advertisements and bogus certificates, in which are used the names of eminent physicians and chemists, the unsuspecting and credulous have been induced to use some of the so-called liquid beautifiers, all of which are known to be positively injurious, and if used for any length of time will destroy the complexion, so that it will be next to impossible to restore it. Mothers should be very careful to see that their daughters do not use these preparations, but ask for and obtain Slaven's Harmless Yosemite Face Powder, the only harmless beautifier. For sale by Osburn & Shoemaker.

A Quarter of a Second.

The New York Sun shows that while a quarter of a second is practically unappreciable by the human mind, it amounts to a very perceptible distance in the performance of a horse going as Maud S. does, at the rate of a mile in 2:11. There are 5,280 feet in a mile, and 131 seconds in two minutes and eleven seconds. Hence, each second in the average speed of Maud S. in a 2:11 mile represents forty feet and about one and three-fourths inches. A quarter of that would be a trifle over ten feet, which would constitute a good wide margin between a winning horse and a competitor. Indeed, the eighth of a second, measured in distance, would place the former half a length ahead of the latter.

Is It Possible That a remedy of such common, simple plants as Hops, Bitters, Mandrake, Dandelion, etc., makes so many and such marvelous and wonderful cures as Hop Bitters do? It must be, for when old and young, rich and poor, Pastor and Doctor, Lawyer and Editor, all testify to having been cured by them, we must believe and doubt no longer. See other columns.
